9th Secunderabad Division furnished to the Collector by the Cantonment Executive Officer, it is observed that the site of the bungalow was ordered to be resumed. The site was accordingly ordered by the Collector to be resumed; and as the owner relinquished his right over the materials (a few stones) existing on the site, the -- Tahsildar was asked to take possession of the site and to sell the materials and credit the proceeds to Government. A copy of the Collector's proceedings is enclosed.

2. As the site had already been ordered to be resumed in the Government letter, dated 24-2-'13 above - referred to, the Collector may be asked to submit definite proposals for its disposal.

In its Refce at pp. 5-6 C.J, the Board states that (7) from this forts' letter No. 535 Revd. 24.2.1913 to the Asst. Quartermaster-Genl, 4th (Secunderabad) Division it is observed that the site of bungalow no 24 was ordered to be resumed and that the site of the bungalow was accordingly ordered to be resumed by the Collector. The bungalow not the resumption of which was ordered in the letter referred to above is a mistake for bungalow no. 34 - The correspondence then was about the bungalow covered by Grant No. 250 and the Collr Bellary pointed (7) out in para 3 of his letter abstract of G.O. No. 554 d. 24.2.1913 that the bungalow covered by that grant was no. 34 and not no. 4. As the resumption has already been ordered by the Collr. his action may now be approved. ~~The draft order and letter are ended the call has been entered in the Call Book vide No. 54 with the date of the action on the book~~

DRJ 11.3.27 2 The site reverts to the control of the Local Govt. Proposals for the disposal of the site may be called (V) for as recommended by the Board. A draft order and letter are submitted. The call has been entered as No. 54 in the Call book with date of finalisation on 1.6.27

ORDER. No. 742 dated 20-4- 1927.

Mis.

The action of the Collector of Bellary in having ordered the resumption of the site of bungalow No.4 in the Bellary Cantonment, the sale of the materials on it and the credit of the sale proceeds to the Government is approved. The Board of Revenue is requested to submit proposals for the disposal of the site.

2. In its Reference read above the Board of Revenue has stated that it is observed from the letter of the Deputy Secretary to Government, Revenue Department No.555 Revenue dated 24-2-13 (7) to the address of the Assistant Quarter Master General 9th (Secunderabad) Division that the site of the bungalow No.4 was ordered to be resumed and that it was accordingly ordered by the Collector to be resumed. The site which was ordered to be resumed was the site of bungalow No.34 (Vide para. 3 of the letter of the Collector of Bellary, Ref.B & G. No.458 dated 28-8-1912 submitted with Board's Refce. No.714 Gt.-12-7 dated 21-12-12) and not No.4. The Board is requested to report whether the site of bungalow No.34 was resumed and how the site was disposed of.
